Product Description:

The Bravo Delta Models Sopwith Camel Black/White Checkered in 1/17th scale is a wooden model aircraft model in our Bravo Delta Wooden Aircraft Models range. Sopwith Camel F1 1917-1919 R D239 No.28 Squadron RAF Formed at Yatesbury, UK, and disbanded in January, 1920 at Eastleigh after serving in France and Italy. Motto: "Whatever you may do, do"; A Sopwith Camel was responsible for shooting down the Fokker DR1 "Red Baron" on 21st April, 1918. Bravo Delta Models are exceptional museum quality wooden aircraft models and are faithfully reproduced in kiln dried Mahogany. Each is carved, joined and sanded by hand. The deep, rich finish that distinguishes these models from others is created by the application of up to 35 coats of enamel. The artist then hand paints all of the details onto each model. The final product is a beautiful authentic wooden aircraft which is fully built and finished and packed in a strong shipping carton. Every model has its own desk stand. All the propellers are made of wood and will rotate. Some of the jets have movable swing wings, also made of wood.
